Constitution of the Psychiatry Student Interest Group Network
(PsychSIGN)

Article I: Name of Organization

The name of this organization will be the Psychiatry Student Interest Group Network ("PsychSIGN"). This is a special interest group for medical students within the American Psychiatric Association ("APA").

Article II: Sponsorship and Affiliation

PsychSIGN will be sponsored by and affiliated with the APA, operating with a biennially-ratified Memorandum of Understanding (Appendix A) between the President, President-Elect and APA staff.

Article III: Purpose and Principles

PsychSIGN is a network of psychiatry interest groups at medical schools internationally that seeks to:

1. promote medical student interest in psychiatry;
2. further the creation and growth of psychiatry interest groups at medical schools internationally;
3. foster connections between students with an interest in psychiatry at medical schools internationally, as well as connections between psychiatry interest groups at medical schools internationally;
4. serve as a central hub for information regarding organizing psychiatry interest groups, planning careers in psychiatry, and other topics relevant to medical students interested in psychiatry;
5. create connections between medical students interested in psychiatry and psychiatry faculty members;
6. serve as an intermediary between the APA and medical student leaders of psychiatry interest groups as well as the American Medical Association (AMA) Medical Student Section (MSS);
7. provide a professional, respectful, and intellectually stimulating virtual and physical environment which recognizes the benefits of diversity throughout populations of patients, trainees, and professionals; and
8. eliminate the negative stigma associated with mental illness while promoting mental health as an integral part of overall health amongst medical trainees.

Article IV: Membership
Membership is open to any medical student enrolled in any medical school internationally with an interest in the field and subject matter of psychiatry.

Psychiatry Student Interest Group (PsychSIG) membership in PsychSIGN is open to any psychiatry-related interest group pre-approved by their corresponding medical school with a ratified constitution within the past 3 years. Group title of “Psychiatry Student Interest Group” is not a requirement for PsychSIGN affiliation.

Removal of PsychSIG affiliates
1. Any PsychSIG affiliate organization which fails to fulfill the duties of an affiliate organization or PsychSIG Leader as listed in the PsychSIGN Constitution shall be placed on probation at the discretion of the President-elect. The probation period shall last 6 months during which the PsychSIG and its leader has the opportunity to fulfill the aforementioned duties. If the PsychSIG fails to meet these by the end of the probation period, the PsychSIG will no longer be affiliated with PsychSIGN, will be removed from active chapter lists, and PsychSIG leaders will not be invited to regional leadership meetings. Following removal from the network, there will be an additional 6 month waiting period before the PsychSIG may re-apply for affiliation. Any PsychSIG may appeal their removal to the general membership, and may be reinstated with two-thirds approval of the members at the annual meeting.

Removal of Officers
1. Any national officer may be removed from membership by a two-thirds vote of the Board. Prior to a removal vote by the Board, the national officer in question must be notified that such a vote is pending and must be given the opportunity to speak to the Board. Any national officer may appeal his/her removal to the general membership and may be reinstated with two-thirds approval of the members at the annual meeting.
2. Removal of any national officer placed on academic probation by their medical school or taking a leave of absence from medical training greater than 6 months will be at the discretion of the President and President-Elect.
3. Any vacancy in an office resulting from a removal or relinquishment of a position will be filled by appointment by the PsychSIGN President pending approval at the next Board meeting.

Article VI: Elections

1. Local Officers
   a. PsychSIGN affiliated Psychiatry Student Interest Group Leaders
      i. PsychSIG Leaders will be identified in accordance with the policies and procedures of the medical student affairs at their respective home medical institutions. PsychSIGN will have no influence over leadership positions at the local level.

2. Election of National Officers
   a. Regional Chairs
      i. Elections for Regional Chairs will be held during the PsychSIGN Annual Meeting during which the respective PsychSIGN region body shall comprise the electorate.
      ii. Applications can be submitted and displayed on the PsychSIGN website prior to the Annual Meeting as directed by the President-Elect. Information may be shared in the monthly membership newsletter as per discretion of the President-Elect, though this is not required. No distribution of campaign materials or form of mass communication (i.e. listservs) will be utilized by any candidate in efforts to campaign with the general membership. No member of PsychSIGN shall recklessly or negligently disseminate information on behalf of a candidate about another PsychSIGN member or candidate.
iii. Candidates, must declare their intention to run for office during a designated period prior to the annual meeting.
iv. Each candidate will have a 2-minute opportunity to address the assembled Region. Previously submitted applications will be made available to the respective regions.
v. Each medical school may cast one ballot, regardless of the number of students in attendance. Each medical school will thus need to select one Regional Chair prior to submitting its ballot. Members who are candidates for a Region chair may not vote or influence their medical school vote in their respective Region Chair election.
vi. All first choices are counted, and if no candidate wins a majority vote, then the last place candidate is eliminated. Ballots of voters who ranked the eliminated candidate first are redistributed to their next choice candidates, as indicated on each voter's ballot. Last place candidates are successively eliminated, and ballots are redistributed to next choices until one candidate gains a majority vote.
vii. Ballots will be gathered and counted immediately by the current Regional Chair. The winners will be announced when all ballots have been counted and all elections have been completed.

b. Special Interest Chairs
i. Special Interest positions will be appointed by consensus of the President and President-Elect. Applications will be reviewed prior to final announcement at the Annual Meeting.

(c) AMA MSS Delegate
i. Elections for AMA MSS Delegate will be held during the PsychSIGN Annual Meeting during which the PsychSIGN general body shall comprise the electorate.
ii. Applications can be submitted and displayed on the PsychSIGN website prior to the Annual Meeting as directed by the President. Information may be shared in the monthly membership newsletter as per the discretion of the President and President-Elect, though this is not required. No distribution of campaign materials or form of mass communication (i.e. listservs) will be utilized by any candidate in efforts to campaign with the general membership. No member of PsychSIGN shall recklessly or negligently disseminate information on behalf of a candidate about another PsychSIGN member or candidate.
iii. No more than one student from a given medical school may run for Delegate.
iv. Candidates, must declare their intention to run for office during a designated period prior to the annual meeting.
v. Each candidate will have a 2-minute opportunity to address the general body. Previously submitted applications will be made available.
vi. All PsychSIGN members may cast one ballot. All first choices are counted, and if no candidate wins a majority votes, then the last place candidate is eliminated. Ballots of voters who ranked the eliminated candidate first are redistributed to their next choice candidates, as indicated on each voter's ballot. Last place candidates are successively eliminated, and ballots are redistributed to next choices until one candidate gains a majority vote. Members who are candidates for Delegate may not vote for in the AMA MSS Delegate election.

vii. Ballots will be gathered and counted immediately by the Delegate. The winners will be announced when all ballots have been counted and all elections have been completed.

d. Resident Alumnus Liaison
i. The Resident Alumnus Liaison will be appointed by consensus of the outgoing liaison, President and President-Elect. Applications will be reviewed prior to final announcement at the Annual Meeting

e. President-Elect, President
i. National Chair Elections will take place during the annual meeting after Regional Chair Elections. Candidates should submit their names prior to the election and each candidate will have a 5-minute opportunity to address the assembled Board. The winner will be the candidate who garners two-thirds of the vote. If no candidate wins two-thirds of the vote, a run-off election will be held between the top two candidates, and the candidate who earns a simple majority of the votes in the run-off will be the winner. Members of the Board who are candidates for President or President-Elect may not vote in the President-Elect election.

f. Facilitator
i. The Facilitator position will be first offered to the outgoing PsychSIGN President. If so declined, the transitioning President-Elect may appoint an alternative facilitator.

Grievances Regarding Election Procedures
1. Grievances regarding election procedures will be addressed to the outgoing PsychSIGN President, who will allow both sides to present their concerns and will attempt to find a solution that is agreeable to both parties.
2. If the grievance cannot be resolved in the aforementioned manner, it will be resolved by the newly elected Board as follows: Both parties will be permitted five to ten minutes to present their arguments to the Board. The Board will vote on a course of action; a two-thirds majority will win. Any Board members involved in the grievance will not vote in this process.
3. If the grievance cannot be resolved by the Board as described above, it can be appealed to the APA. Decisions by the APA will negate any conflicting articles in this document. Decisions by the APA are final and cannot be further appealed.
Article VII: Amendments

The PsychSIGN Constitution will be reviewed and ratified by a two-thirds majority of the Board biennially. Amendments to this document may be submitted to the Board by any national officer or any member of PsychSIGN. Amendments to this document will be ratified by a simple majority vote of the Board with final approval by a simple majority vote of members in attendance at the National Conference. If no changes are proposed to the document at the time of review and the Board ratifies with the two-thirds majority, the document will not be presented for general discussion at the National Conference.
